

This War Cannot End Without You!

MARCH and RALLY

In Walnut Creek on the Third Anniversary of the U.S. Invasion of Iraq

Peace Is Possible

Saturday, March 18, 2006

11:00 a.m.

Gather at the Walnut Creek BART parking lot at 11:00 a.m.
March to Civic Park at Civic & Broadway in Walnut Creek.
Rally & Program begin at 12:00 Noon.

Invocation:

Rev. Phil Lawson

Keynote Speaker:

Norman Solomon,

Author of War Made Easy & Target Iraq

Speakers:

George Miller, U.S. Congressman

Pete McCloskey, Former U.S. Congressman

Anne Roessler, Military Families Speak Out

Mark DeSaulnier, Contra Costa County Supervisor

Matt Gonzalez, Former San Francisco Supervisor

Elizabeth De La Vega, Former Federal Prosecutor & Writer for The Nation

Entertainment:

Country Joe McDonald ("Next Stop is Vietnam")

Boots Riley of "The Coup" (Bay Area hip-hop)

Julay Brandenburg & the Nightbirds (bluegrass)

Dryfus Case (punk rock)

Oakland Youth Choir

And more.....

Sponsors:

American Friends Service Committee

Lamorinda Peace and Justice Group

Mt. Diablo Peace and Justice Center

The Progressive Alliance of Contra

Costa County

Endorsers:

United for Peace and Justice, Code PINK, Global Exchange, Western States Legal Foundation, Physicians for Social Responsibility, Tri-Valley CARES, Richmond Progressive Alliance, East Bay Peace Action, East Bay Coalition to Support Self Rule for Iraq, Grandparents for Peace, Gray Panthers West County, Central Contra Costa Gray Panthers, Fresh Start of Walnut Creek, Social Justice Alliance of the Interfaith Council of Contra Costa County, Meiklejohn Civil Liberties Institute, Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, Rainforest Action Network, Richmond Greens, Contra Costa County Greens, Progressive Democrats of the East Bay, Lamorinda Democratic Club

www.PeaceIsPossible.us